A NEW TURN IN AFFAIRS

Of Burlington Young Man Recently Married in Chicago.

Burlington, Feb. 9.—A new turn to the fortunes of George Henderson, a Burlington boy, is told in the following dispatch from Chicago:

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson, who were married on January 12, were arrested in their home, 4406 Grand Boulevard, to-day on warrants charging them with operating a confidence game.

The complaint is A. A. Braun, manager of the American Motor Livery company. He charges that the couple gave him a check for $64.50 in payment of a bill for automobile hire and that the check was returned by the Continental National bank marked "No funds."

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson were arraigned before Municipal Judge Hopkins later, but the case was continued until February 9 without the hearing of testimony.

In her cell at the Hyde Park station following the court proceedings Mrs. Henderson declared that she inherited a fortune of $1,000,000 at the death of her father, the late C. E. Wilson, president of the Interurban Traction company of New York, about a year ago and that her trouble in Chicago was all due to an error on the part of the officials of that company.

"This is disgraceful," Mrs. Henderson said. "This is all the result of a mistake on the part of the officials of the traction company in the East. They sent me a book of blank checks on the Continental bank and then evidently failed to send the bank funds. It is ridiculous to have me arrested on a charge of writing a worthless check for the sum of $64.50. Why I gave Braun the check on a Saturday afternoon and the same night I hired an automobile from him and kept it until the following Sunday night. I had no intention of defrauding Braun or anybody else."

"I came to Chicago after father died and I had no intention of getting married then. I was married, however, on January 12, but some of my closest friends don't know it. I will prove that I had no intention of doing a wrong act. If the officials in the East had sent the funds to the bank, as I had supposed they would do when they sent me checks to fill out, everything would have been all right."
